

Colony at Bermuda Grows as Winter Season Progresses

Dinners and Dances Mark the Christmas Period on the Islands.

Special Correspondence to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Dec. 18.—Steadily the Bermuda colony is growing as the sojourners of previous seasons return to their favored retreats and there is also an increasing number of newcomers who are joining the colony, while hotel reservations far in excess of those of previous seasons are reported from the Hamilton, the Princess, the St. George, the Belmont, Frascatti and Inverurie, as well as from the smaller hotels.

Sir Joseph Outerbridge, who recently came from New York, has joined Lady Outerbridge, who sailed earlier from Halifax. This season they are at Chelton, Paget, and will hereafter make their winter home there.

Sir Arthur and Lady Harris of Montreal and Col. and Mrs. Donald MacKenzie are among those who came earlier.

Dr. and Mrs. Seth M. Milliken and family of New York are at Westmoreland, Pembroke.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Roosevelt of New York and Hyde Park have opened Linden, at Paget.

Mount Vernon has been reserved by Mrs. Morgan Davis of New York. Gen. and Mrs. Oliver and Miss Oliver are at Trelone, Paget. Mrs. Weston and Miss Winnifred Weston have returned to the Chimney, Paget. Mrs. R. A. Smith and her children occupy Inwood, one of the old Bermuda houses at Paget.

Mr. John Langan of New York has Clifton cottage, on Spanish Point. Mr. Tom Cushing, writer and translator of the novel "Blood and Sand," is at Alderly, Paget. Cove cottage has been taken by Major Malcolm, R. M. L. I. Ardleigh, Paget, is occupied by the Rev. H. A. Nelson, Mrs. Nelson and Miss Nelson of New York.

The Misses Silvis of Philadelphia, who have been the guests of Major and Mrs. Rockwell, will occupy their place in the West End. Mrs. C. A. Bunnell and Miss Bunnell of Stratford, Conn., recently arrived at the Bay. Somerset, Mrs. Moncre Robinson and Miss Robinson of Paoli, Pa., arrived to occupy Bel Air, their place at Paget. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burland and Mr. G. H. Burland of New York have opened their cottage on the Pitts Bay road. Mr. and Mrs. Jack G. Vooch of New York are at Tranquillity, Somerset.

Elaborate preparations have been made for observance of the holidays both on the part of the cottagers and the hotels. A number of the cottagers will have friends with them over the period and a cycle of dinners and dances will mark the period of festivity at the hotels. The Argyra, of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Line, which enters the winter service on December 21 is scheduled to bring down a large number for the holiday period at the hotels, especially at the Hamilton, the Princess, the St. George, Belmont, Frascatti and Inverurie, are in excess of previous seasons at this period and it is expected that by mid-season all accommodations on the islands will have been taken.

Among those from New York who came on the Fort Hamilton last Friday were: Col. and Mrs. J. G. Donnelly, Col. and Mrs. Webb C. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whitehouse, Miss Susan Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jacobson, Miss Helen McGregor, Miss C. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Jackson, Miss Blanche Alecock, Mr. J. E. Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. F. Dieckert, Mr. Edward Gibbons, Mrs. Marie Bewick, Miss Vera Hollis, Mrs. F. Kierman, Mr. J. Kierman, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Nettleton, Mr. J. S. Roe, Miss Marion Alchin, Miss M. Wellington, Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Murphy, Mr. M. A. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. F. Leach, Mr. and Mrs. M. Mandelbaum, Miss Elizabeth Shane, Mrs. I. Doudero, Mrs. William H. Senour, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. I. Arner, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hartman, Miss E. Wellington, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ashmead, Mr. and Mrs. William Fadden, Miss Lucy Keeler, Dr. F. J. Moyer, Jr., Mr. Archie Capner, Mr. William Wiles, Miss Isabel Nelson, Miss Cecelia McDonald, the Rev. A. T. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Sanderson, Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Sinnott, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Grober, Mr. L. J. Marx, Miss B. Murray, Miss Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. I. Horwitz, Mrs. J. Oshlag, Mr. E. N. Watlington.

Christmas Visitors Gather at Atlantic City's Hotels

Holly, Mistletoe and Evergreens Give Holiday Touch to Boardwalk Hostelrys—Among the Many Arrivals—Hunting Season Starts.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Dec. 23.

All the Boardwalk hotels and at many establishments on the avenues there are large assemblies of visitors from many States. The New York contingent is large for this date.

Holly, mistletoe and evergreens are everywhere. At all the hotels on Christmas Day the orchestras will provide specially appropriate musical programs.

In an open tract near the West Jersey and Seashore Railroad terminal is a large Christmas tree brilliant with varicolored electric bulbs. Here on Christmas morning representatives of the Elks, Rotary, Kiwanis, the Lions and other organizations will gather for a special program, including Christmas carols, distribution of Christmas baskets to poor children and addresses preparatory to a tour of the county institutions, where good cheer programs will brighten Christmas for the inmates. Twenty automobiles filled with leading residents will make the tour.

Throughout the city at midnight to-morrow the church bells will ring for Christmas. On the links of the Woodbury Club to-morrow there will be a golf tournament exclusively for the caddies. The members will do the caddying this time.

Numerous red capped hunters roamed the woods in the Weymouth section on Wednesday, the opening day of the deer season. The season comprises four consecutive Wednesdays, December 20 and 27, January 3 and 10. The hunters wear the red headgear to lessen danger of being mistaken for game. Only buck deer may legally be killed. Those who slay does or fawns may pay heavy penalties. In 1921 nearly 300 bucks were killed in this and Burlington counties.

Bookings are heavy for New Year, and at home of the Boardwalk houses it will be impossible to offer any more accommodations. One of the features of the day here will be a costume parade somewhat along the lines of the Mummer's spectacle that annually marks the Quaker City's New Year celebration. A citizens' committee that met early in the week and had the Boardwalk agreed that the resort must have an annual winter fete. Frank Tannehill, playwright and producer, suggested a society circus and the idea was approved. A committee to work out details has been appointed.

This committee met following agitation over the inadequate provisions for the entertainment of visitors in the fall and winter. Some hotel men believe all the piers and every theater should remain open in winter. Efforts will be made to have a permanent symphony orchestra here.

Recent arrivals at the hotels follow: Ritz-Carlton—Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McCreery, Mrs. H. W. Seward, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dubois, Mr. Lawrence L. L. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Dolan, Miss Mary Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Kerbaugh, Mr. Arthur J. Slade, Mr. Carl Wicks, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Koch, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Graham, Mr. George Grumback, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Wentworth and Mr. Samuel S. Breslin.

Also Mr. A. W. Wagner, Mr. Alfred David, Mr. J. B. Jenkins, Mr. John

Scott, Miss E. F. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fecke, Mr. Murray Miller, Mr. John B. Lord, Mr. Thomas Powers, Mr. E. D. Mudd, Mr. Spencer Young, Mr. C. H. Cockran, Mr. Harry D. Wescott, Mr. W. A. Dunlop, Mr. John W. A. Davis and Mr. Paul Scharffin.

"Hello, Alice."
The Christmas Dinner Is All Arranged!
"I've just finished speaking to Alfred. Told him I've arranged for the dinner for all of us."
"Where's the dinner going to be? Where do you think? Of course, the Bristol! I couldn't forget that splendid dinner we had there the evening we saw the 'Follies.' No, it was no trouble at all to make the reservations. I just called the maitre d'hotel, Mr. Reid, and told him to have a table for four at six o'clock on Christmas Day."
"I think that this Christmas dinner is a special event at the Bristol, but I don't see how the boys can possibly enjoy it any more than that first time we dined there. They told me what the menu would be, and I'm going to let you wait, and find out for yourself. You'll love it!"
"Suppose we meet you and Carl in the lobby of the Bristol at six sharp?"
